Details of the decision^j
To approve the Change Request for the Bradford to Shipley corridor scheme to extend the timescale for outline business case submission from 2015/16 to March 2019. To increase the development costs for the scheme from £0.341million to £1.597 million to be funded from the Transport Fund and to approve an addendum to the existing funding agreement between the Combined Authority and Bradford for the additional expenditure of up to £1.257 million.
Reasons for the decision
To enable further development work to be carried out to look at transport interventions along the Shipley to Bradford Corridor which would contribute to the main Transport Fund strategic objectives of increasing employment and overall economic growth (GVA). The specific project aims include improving the A650 as a public transport corridor and promoting Canal Road as the main strategic route for traffic, providing strategic connections between Bradford City Centre and communities in Airedale, and promoting better interchange between all modes of transport.
